Wage Jihad O Ummah of Jihad

As days go by and the developments on the ground increase so does our recognition of the need for jihad, the value of the one Jam'ah, and the one flag for the Ummah of Islam, and that is what Allah ﷻ has commanded us for, so that the religion and the world are constructed through us. In the early days, Muslims could not think of Islam without jihad. The religion and Shari'ah were revealed in Madina, and jihad played a major role in the lives of the Muslims. Then the muhajir and ansar Sahaba of the Prophet ﷺ, their successors, followers of their successors, and others passed by, and they worshiped Allah ﷻ with honor while the consolidation for the Muslims remained for centuries. All the good for this Ummah lie in jihad. We are the Ummah of jihad and our Prophet ﷺ is the leader of the mujahidin. He ﷺ participated in the conquests himself and also dispatched battalions for the battles. He ﷺ hoisted flags, raised swords and spears, wore body armor, put on headgear, and his front teeth were broken, and his face and fingers bled. He ﷺ rode horses, went to jihad in the scorching heat, and endured the bitter cold. The Prophet ﷺ did not do all these things in his youth; rather, he ﷺ initiated his jihadi life through the courtesy of the sword while he ﷺ reached his fiftieth year of life, with his being the most honorable one among the creations in the sight of Allah. And yet, he ﷺ fought and trampled on the path of religion.

On the other hand, Allah ﷻ condemns the munafiqin, those who stay at home and keep back from jihad. He ﷻ informs them of the condition of His Prophet ﷺ and commands them to follow Him to the extent that He ﷺ might become an excellent example for the Muslims to follow. In Surah at-Tawbah, Allah ﷻ mentioned, after He ﷻ revealed the state of the munafiqin in the verse: "Those who were left behind rejoiced their (staying at home) behind the Messenger of Allah," that: "But the Messenger and the believers fought with their wealth and souls." In Surah al-Ahzab, after revealing the escape of the munafiqin and their desires of inquiring about the condition of Muslims from at a distance, Allah ﷻ said: "There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allah an excellent pattern for anyone whose hope is in Allah and the Last Day and (who) remembers Allah often."

Putting faith in Allah ﷻ and fighting in His cause are the prophetic way and the method of the true religion. Allah ﷻ says: "Indeed, the believers are those who believe in Allah and His Messenger, then doubted nothing, and strive in the cause of Allah with their wealth and lives."

Jihad is a duty like prayer and fasting and there is no difference among them in terms of obligation. At present, it is obligatory upon every Muslim everywhere. There remains no excuse for an adult with sound mind for abandoning jihad. With the exception of the judiciary system of the Islamic State, there is no other ruler in the countries of the Islamic world who judges by the Qur'an and Sunnah. This is sufficient proof that the obligation of jihad remain, while if other reasons are looked upon, such as the rights of the helpless prisoners with whom the prisons have been filled, the death, expulsion, and starvation of the Muslims at every corner of the world, the invasion of the Muslim lands by enemy forces, and the occupation of the same, and the bringing of the puppet murtadd tawaghit into power throughout the Muslim lands, the obligation of jihad becomes even more bolstered upon every Muslim. The sayings of the scholars of Islam in this regard are not concealed to anyone at all. That is why it is obligatory on the Muslims to get access to weapons and train themselves in their use. Thus, there should be efforts made to find and buy weapons to the extent that jihad becomes viable. Truly, becomes necessary for the execution of an obligation also becomes obligatory.

Surprisingly, the Muslims and those attributing themselves to Islam, being more than billions in numbers, neither fight in the path of Allah ﷻ nor support those who fight. Meanwhile, there remains no single court, other than that of the Islamic State, from the far eastern Indonesia to the far western Spain, and from the far northern Europe to the far southern Central Africa, ruling by the Shari'ah of Allah.

It should be believed that there is life and salvation in jihad, as Allah ﷻ says: "O you who believe! Respond to Allah and to His Messenger, when He calls you to what will bring you to Life." Ibn Jarir narrated on the authority of Ibn Ishaq: "It means that Allah ﷻ gave you honor after humiliation, strengthened you after weakness, and kept you after you were overpowered by your enemies." Leaving jihad means destruction and severe loss, as Allah ﷻ says: "Do not cast yourselves into destruction with your own hands." The commentators say: "Destruction means locking oneself in home and property giving up jihad." If one contemplates the Sirat of the Prophet ﷺ and His Sahaba, it can be found that they remained upon the pledges of jihad till the end of their lives to the extent that they pleased Allah. Imam Bukhari and Muslim have narrated that the Sahaba of the Prophet ﷺ would say: "We are the ones who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad ﷺ ..... on jihad till we are alive." So, where are the people today who have given bay'a on jihad for the rest of their lives? Once being introduced to jihad, a believer encounters trials and difficulties, so that his faith may be tested. Therefore, the Prophet ﷺ said about a person, who does not do jihad, does not even think about it, and dies in that state, that he dies on a branch of hypocrisy. The Prophet ﷺ said: "The one, who doesn't go to battle and doesn't even intend for that, dies on a branch of hypocrisy!" [Narrated by Muslim]. Today we see so many people, including their fathers and forefathers, dying in a state of ignorance staying away from jihad! No one takes up arms or gives arms without being on the side of the murtadd tawaghit. The inheritance of "staying away from jihad" has been passed from generation to generation, may Allah protect us from that.

Therefore, O people of this generation! Avoid doubting jihad after the return of the Khilafah. Do not find pleasure in sitting at home, as you have been experiencing the bitterness of humiliation for a long time. Instead, let us experience the sweetness of fighting for the sake of Allah.

Whoever claims to love Allah ﷻ, let him fight in His cause, as the lover always offers what is precious to his beloved. Know that when people undermine this commandment, Allah ﷻ promises them replacement by another people who will wage jihad in His cause. Allah ﷻ says: "O you who believe! If any of you deviate from your religion Allah ﷻ will bring forth more people whom He will Love and who will love Him, who will be kind and humble towards the believers and firm against the disbelievers. They will strive hard in the cause of Allah and will not fear the reproach of any faultfinder."

In this verse, there are indications, for the truthful ones who love Allah ﷻ fight in the path of Allah and fear not the blame of the blamers. There are many ways of waging jihad. If one cannot come to the battlefield, he should fight with his wealth. Kill the kuffar with weapons, poison them, drown them, push them down from heights, loot their properties, destroy their cars and business centers, destroy their farms, and seize the properties of their commanders, soldiers, and judges. Allah ﷻ will surely provide means for the truthful ones. No matter how hard the experienced people have been trying to awaken the Ummah of Islam, they cannot find more encompassing and shorter path than jihad in reaching that goal, for it is the way of the Prophet ﷺ, His companions, and their followers. So, O Ummah of Islam! Wage jihad, rise to jihad.

O Ummah of Islam! Come to the Khilafah, and support the Khilafah, as in it is the dignity of the Muslims, and this is what angers the kuffar. And all praise is due to Allah, the Lord of all creation.

Our Predecessors In Ramadan

3 Khushu

Praise be to Allah, whose remembrance does not depart from the hearts of the humble, and prayers and peace be upon our Prophet Muhammad, the imam of worshippers, and his family and companions, the upright and pure, and after.

There is nothing more sublime for a person to possess in Ramadan than Khushu (reverence) for Allah ﷻ, his awareness of the meanings of servitude, his feeling of the greatness and pride of his Lord, and his immersion in the meanings of the Qur'an that reveal the majesty of this book, which if it were revealed on a mountain, you would see it humbled and torn apart from the fear of the Lord.

And these are the greatest fruits of Ramadan, which the people of Qunoot and lengthy prayer find, those who kneel, prostrate humbly and fervently. There is no doubt that those who pray to Allah ﷻ for six months to accept from them Ramadan, they had worked in it with everything they could bear, which the lovers of comfort and entertainment could not, until those people saw their deeds in Ramadan as a great treasure, if Allah ﷻ did not accept it, they would have lost a clear loss, Allah said: "And those who give whatever they can afford to give while their hearts tremble that they are returning to their lord return to their Lord." [al-Mu'minun: 60] How is the heart hardened and suffocated by locks? As long as the eye dries up? How long does the reader not ponder over the book of his Lord? Ramadan passes one after another, and so do the verses on the hearts, as if they possess rusts and curtains concealing clear signs and brilliant examples, and warnings and storms that even shake the mountains, and temptations of Paradise, after which only the deprived or the coward sits down from rolling up. Fear not but Allah.

Khushu is a renewal of faith

It is well-known that worship is the delight of the eyes of lovers, and their hearts attained the fruit of that of Khushu, tranquility and familiarity with Allah ﷻ. His heart pledged so that his faith would not wear out.

And the best people in Khushu are the prophets, peace and blessings be upon them. Allah said: "And of those whom we guided and chose. They would fall prostrating and weeping when messages of the Most Gracious were recited to them." Allah said about Zakaria (peace and blessings be upon Him) and family: "and they were humble before us." On the authority of Abdullah bin Masoud, he said: "The Prophet ﷺ said to me: '(Recite to me), I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I recite to you and upon you it was revealed.' He said: '(Yes) I recited Surah an-Nisa until I came to this verse- "So how then? We have brought a witness from every nation, and we have brought you as a witness against these."' He said: 'It is enough for you now.' So he turned to him and saw that his eyes were shedding tears." [Agreed Upon]. And Allah ﷻ praised the humble people of knowledge. He ﷻ said: "Those who have been give the knowledge before it, fall down on their faces prostrating submissively when it is recited to them. And they say, 'Glory be to Our Lord! The promise of our Lord is surely bound to be fulfilled. They fall down on their faces weeping and it adds to their humility." [al-Irsa:107-110] This is because the purpose of Knowledge is Khushu, as the Allah said: "Only among His servants are scholars who fear Allah." [Fatir: 28]

Meaning of Khushu

Ibn Taymiya (may Allah have mercy on him) said: "Khushu is interpreted in two ways. It means being humble and making oneself humiliated. In another way it means peace and tranquility which even includes the softness of heart. Heart should not be toughened. Khushu of the heart also means finding rest and comfort while worshipping Allah. Accordingly, Khushu in prayer requires both peace of mind and humility. Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with him) narrated in the Tafsir of the verse {Who turn to Allah in all humility in their prayer}[al-Mu'minun: 2] that: "The meaning of Khushu is peace and humility. " Hasan and Qatadah said: 'Fearfulness.' Muqatil said: "Being humble." Ali said: "The Khushu of mind means lowering wings down for the Muslims and not looking left and right." Mujahid said: "Lowering gaze and lowering wings." When someone from the scholars would stand in prayer, would fear Allah lest he should take a look and feared if no worldly matters peep into mind. Umar bin Dinar said: "Khushu doesn't mean Ruku and prostration during prayer. Rather, Khushu means steadiness and shaping the prayer in a beautiful way." Ibn Sirin and other scholars said: "The companions of the Prophet ﷺ used to look at the sky and left-right during prayer when this verse was revealed: "Truly, success in this life and in the Hereafter does come to the believers, who turn (to Allah) in all humility in their prayer." [al-Mu'minun: 1-2] 'Ata' said: "Khushu doesn't mean playing the body and dress during the prayer. As the Prophet ﷺ saw a man playing with his beards while at prayer, He ﷺ said: "If the man were to possess Khushu in his heart, he would have surely exposed that through his organs." [Collections of Fatwa]

Among the things that help in Khushu during Ramadan prayers are that hearts are moved with verses while standing on the places where there are miracles; for the reader and listener to pay attention, Abdullah bin Masoud, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "Do not recite the Qur'an like this poetry! Do not scatter it like this. Do not sing the Qur'an like this! Stand at its wonders, and move hearts with it" [Ibn Abi Shaybah's workbook].

Khushu in prayer

And the Khushoo of the heart appears on the limbs. Ibn al-Qayyim, may Allah have mercy on him, said: "And those who know are unanimously agreed that Khushoo' is the heart, and its fruit is on the limbs, and it manifests it." And Khushu in prayer is its spirit. Ibn al-Qayyim, may Allah have mercy on him, said: "The secret of prayer, its spirit and essence, is the servant's turning to Allah with his wholeness in it, just as he should not turn his face away from the Qiblah to any other direction, so he should not turn his heart from his Lord to someone else. Rather, he makes the Kaaba, which is the house of Allah, the Qiblah of his face and body, and the Lord of the House - Blessed and Exalted be He – the Qiblah of his heart and soul. Prayer is of three levels: the worshiper's turn to his heart, so he protects it and corrects it from the diseases of desires, obsessions, and dangers that nullify the reward of his prayer or detracts from it; By completing these three levels, he will have truly established the prayer, and Allah's turn to the worshiper will be according to that" [Secrets of Prayer]

Salaf and Khushu in prayer

As for the conditions of the predecessors in humility in prayer, this is some of their news. Al-Anbas bin Uqbah, may Allah have mercy on him, used to prostrate until birds fell on his back, as if he were straying from a wall. [Asceticism of Imam Ahmad]

Ibn Wahb said: "I saw Al-Thawri in the Sacred Mosque after sunset, praying and then prostrating a prostration, and he did not raise his head until the evening prayer was called" [Huliya al-Awliya']. Dead, - meaning from the length of prostration -" [Birth of the Nobles' Flags], and Imam Al-Bukhari, may Allah have mercy on him, was praying one night, and the wasp stung him seventeen times, and when he finished the prayer, he said: "Look how much he hurt me" [Fath ul-Bari]n The loss of Khushu in people is the beginning of the disappearance of religion. Hudhaifah, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "The first thing that you will lose in your religion is Khushu, and the last thing that you will lose in your religion is prayer." [Hiliya al-Awliya'], and Sahl said: Whoever is humble in his heart, Satan will not approach him.

And Allah ﷻ reprimanded the best of generations during the era of the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, so that their hearts would be humble and not hardened. Allah said:((Has not the time come for the hearts of those who believe (in the Oneness of Allah - Islamic Monotheism) to be affected by Allah's Reminder (this Qur'an), and that which has been revealed of the truth, lest they become as those who received the Scripture [the Taurat and the Injeel] before (i.e. Jews and Christians), and the term was prolonged for them and so their hearts were hardened? And many of them were Fasiqun (rebellious, disobedient to Allah). [Al-Hadid: 16] Ibn Katheer, may Allah have mercy on him, said: "Allah said: Is it not time for the believers to humble their hearts to the remembrance of Allah, i.e.: softening when remembrance and admonition and hearing the Qur'an, understanding it and criticizing it, listening to it and obeying it... On the authority of Ibn Masoud, may Allah be pleased with him, he said: What was between our Islam And he made it clear that Allah reprimanded us with this verse {Is it not the time for those who believe that their hearts should humble to the remembrance of Allah} except for four years" [Tafsir], meaning that this was revealed at the beginning of Islam, so how does Allah ﷻ warn them today, after the deeds of the People of the Book who have long been against them? Cruelty?! Among the beneficial supplications is what was reported on the authority of the Prophet, may Allah's prayers and peace be upon him, that he used to supplicate: "O Allah, I seek refuge in You from knowledge that does not benefit, from a heart that is not humble, and from a soul that is not satiated, and from a supplication that is not answered" [Muslim]. May Allah grant him a humble heart. And whoever humbles his heart to his master and realizes the greatness of his Lord, glory be to Him, and the greatness of His words and judgments, he knows that if he sacrificed himself, blood and money for the sake of that, it would have been easy, and that Allah's religion deserves more giving. Among the legislators and the people of constitutions, and that Jihad is one of the best acts of worship, and for him Allah brings the best of his servants.

And whoever misses this status in Ramadan, when will he get it? So, my Muslim brother, be careful of it, for perhaps you will realize that on the last night of Ramadan, so your conclusion will be musky.

Oh Allah, help us in good worship, and make us humble, repentant, and humbled, and make us grateful and remembrance. May Allah's peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad and all his family and companions.

زكاة الفطر

Zakat-ul-Fitr

An obligatory Sadaqah due before breaking the fast on the last day of Ramadan

Its Ruling

It is a duty for every Muslim, adult and minor, male or female, free or slave. The father pays it on behalf of his children and his wife if they cannot pay it, and the property owner pays it from what he owns.

It is narrated that 'Abdullah bin 'Umar ﷺ narrated: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ enjoined the "payment of one saa' of dates or one saa' of barley as Zakat-ul-Fitr on every Muslim, slave or free, male or female, young or old, and he ordered that it be paid before the people went out to offer the Eid prayer." (Reported by Al-Bukhari)

Its Time

It is obligatory from the sunset of the last day of Ramadan until right before the Eid prayer. The best time to give is after Fajr prayer on the day before Eid prayer, and it is permissible to give 1-2 days before that.

Its Amount

It is obligatory for a Muslim who owns a measure of food that exceeds his needs and that of his dependents for the day of Eid and its night.

The Wisdom in It

Ibn 'Abbas ﷺ narrated: "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ enjoined Zakat-ul-Fitr on the one who fasts to purify him from any indecent act or speech and for the purpose of providing food for the needy." (Reported by Abu Dawud)

From What is it Due

All Muslims are due for Zakat-ul-Fitr a saa' of food from the people of the country, such as: dates, rice, bulgar, raisins...), where a saa' measures four portions.

Questions

Who should be given Zakat-ul-Fitr?

Zakat-ul-Fitr is given to the poor and need from the people of the country, and preferred are the most needy from them.

Is is permissible to pay Zakat-ul-Fitr as cash?

The majority of the people knowledge said: Zakat-ul-Fitr is only given as food, and it is not permissible to pay it as cash, as there is no report that the Prophet g or his Sahaba gave it as cash.
